Yizkor: The Wisdom of Our Tradition

Our tradition shows great wisdom in teaching us to gather for services of remembrance on Yom Kippur and on the three pilgrimage festivals (Pesach, Shavuot, and Sukkot). These moments that mark the seasons of the year – and the seasons of our lives – awaken strong memories of relationships that shaped us, sustained us, and sometimes challenged us; and of holy days we shared with loved ones and cherished friends.

When they are gone, we can still affirm the beautiful and lasting values we learned from them, and remember them in all their humanness. One of the ways we do that is by coming together as a community of comfort and care.

From its inception a thousand years ago, when it was prayed by Ashkenazic Jews on the morning of Yom Kippur, Yizkor has had two profound themes: God's embrace of the loved ones who are beyond our reach; and our commitment to do the good deeds that are within our reach by giving tzedakah in their memory. When we say Yizkor ('may God remember') we proclaim our faith that those who have died have significance now and forever.

MEMORIAM

In memory of all the victims of terrorism, violence and natural disasters everywhere in the world.

With the names of our beloved relatives we link in affectionate memory the unnamed martyrs of our people who died for the Sanctification of God's Name. We recall: the Six Million, the Builders and Guardians of Israel, the Munich Eleven, the Victims of the Ma'alot and the Istanbul Synagogue Massacres. Our congregation mourns for them and remembers them and their heroic example.

*The wisdom of the departed I regard as my portion,
And their lives are a balm to my sorrow,
And among them I hold sweet discourse,
Since they are the choicest of the faithful.
And when I swim in the sea of their wisdom
I gather pearls to embroider the days,
And in them is the delight of my eyes and heart,
And of them my jubilating lips will sing ---
The light of my eyes, the song of my ears,
the honey in my mouth,
And in my nostrils the scent of cinnamon.
And of them I shall muse, and be exalted all my days.
For in them are the sources of my being.*

Moses ibn Ezra

In Memory of Father

The memory of your life, dear father, rises before me this solemn hour as I recall all the kindness, love and encouragement, which you showed me during your life. With untiring zeal you provided for my physical and spiritual needs. You rejoiced in my achievements, you guided me in my perplexities, and strengthened me in my trials and disappointments. I can pay you the tribute, which you so richly deserve, by cherishing the ideals and principles you have taught me, by continuing the noble work you have left unfinished, by loyally upholding the heritage of Israel, which you have transmitted unto me, and by serving my people and all who need me. Though you are gone from my physical view, the bond of love, which unites us, can never be severed. May the memories of your life spur me on to follow truth and righteousness. Amen.

In Memory of Mother

Though we are separated, dear mother, in this solemn hour I call to mind the love and solicitude with which you tended and watched over my childhood, ever mindful of my welfare and ever anxious for my happiness. Many were the sacrifices you made to ennoble my heart and instruct my mind. What I achieved is because of your influence, and what I am, I have become through you. Though you are no longer physically present, the lessons that you imparted unto me shall ever remain with me.

If at times I failed in showing you the love and appreciation, which you so worthily deserved, if I was thoughtless and ungrateful, I ask to be forgiven. I pray that your spirit inspires me to noble and intelligent living, so that when my days on earth are ended, I shall be deemed worthy of you, and reunited with you in God. Amen.

In Memory of a Husband or a Wife

With a sorrowing heart, O beloved, I fondly recall your love and companionship, your tenderness and devotion, and the many comforts and joys you brought into my life. Though death has taken you from me, the bond, which unites us, cannot be broken.

O God, I pray that my grief at the departure of my beloved engender within me sympathy and kindness, understanding and helpfulness toward all mankind. Grant that the memories of my dear one impel me to seek goodness and truth, to serve Israel and humanity. Teach me by my aspirations and daily living to reflect honor upon my beloved who was dear to me in life. Be my comfort and strength. Amen.

In Memory of a Child

I remember in this solemn hour, beloved child, the many joys you afforded me during your lifetime. I recall the days when I delighted in your physical and mental growth, and planned for your future. Though death has taken you from me, you are not forgotten. Your spirit is enshrined in my heart.

O heavenly Father, I thank You for the precious gift which You entrusted to my keeping, and which in Your infinite wisdom called back unto Yourself. Though few were the years I rejoiced with my child, many were the blessings that he (she) brought into my household. Teach me to live more nobly and to extend my love and devotion to other children in thankfulness for the privilege of having had and loved this child, though but for a few, brief years. Thus may his (her) soul be bound up in the bond of life and his (her) memory remain an inspiration to me. Amen.

In Memory of a Brother, Sister and Other Relative

I recall the many hours we spent together in happy fellowship. I shall ever hold sacred the memory of your love and loyalty. May God grant that the recollections of your life stimulate me to noble thinking and righteous living. O God, I put my trust in You, the source of all life and my strength in sorrow. Amen.
