Topics for discussion with your family on Rosh Hashanah & Yom Kippur

1. What are my three most significant achievements of the past year?
2. Name three things that you personally could do in the coming year to make the world a better place.
3. What was the best advice that you ever received? From whom? To whom would you pass this advice and why?
4. What is your most cherished Jewish value and how does it affect your life?
5. What do you want people to remember most about you after you have gone?
6. How do we help each other change, become better and more focused on doing the right thing?
7. What are you most grateful about this year (encourage non-material possession kind of answers?)
8. What do you think it means to be sealed in the book of life?
9. What are some of the things we want to ask forgiveness for this year?
10. How can we make sure that we do not make the same mistakes again next year?
11. What are some actionable steps we can take to make a difference?
